WESTERN STATES HOSTAGE NEGOTIATORS' ASSOCIATION

May 11, 2017

WSHNA learned today of federal funding which has been approved for several negotiation courses to occur at yet-to-be-determined locations between July 1st and September 8th.

If your agency or institution is interested in hosting one of these courses which would include up to 33 free seats for a week-long level one, level two or level three negotiation course, contact President Elect Troy King.

WSHNA will help walk you through the application process as well as making arrangements for the course.

There will be only up to eight of these courses funded across the United States, so if you want one in your area, it would be wise to begin the application process very soon.
